The Design Editor is responsible for executing the creative vision of the Editorial Staff throughout the yearbook, including creating the cover, designing spreads, and consistently implementing the year’s theme throughout the book. The Design Editor manages a group of Design Interns, assigning them spreads to design, leading open critiques of spreads, and teaching them various design principles. In the beginning of the year, the Design Editor leads a series of workshops to help Design Interns learn how to use design software, such as Adobe InDesign or Walsworth’s Online Design.

Along with the section’s responsibilities, the Design Editor is in charge of also following general Editor duties such as:

- Updating the Managing Editor on a weekly basis of the status of interns and alerting the Managing Editor of any important intern developments (good and bad).

- The Editor is responsible and accountable for content on section pages by the deadline (as defined by Editor-in-Chief).

- Work with all editors to integrate material and create a section that is stylistically consistent with the book concept.

Job Requirements:

- advanced knowledge of design software (i.e. Adobe InDesign, Adobe Photoshop)

- knowledge of design principles

- attention to detail

- strict adherence to deadlines

- passion for design
